Discussion Regarding The Editor's Role As Gatekeeper

- Executive Board agrees unanimously Editor should act as Gatekeeper for the Lake Winnipeg Writers Group
 - What is accepted and how it is accepted into Voices is at their discretion.
 - Problems also seem to be when feedback is expected from the writer within a reasonable timeframe
 - A 'Review By' date may need to be considered.
- Suggestion proposed to include a secondary/backup editor for genres that are not the specialty of the Primary Editor or where the experiences of the Primary Editor do not cover.
- Trynda proposes new submission rules, Seconded by Tyra. Vote passed, none abstained.
 - Change prose submission to 2 pieces per author.
 - restricted to a single author name and no additional pen names.

- 6000 words max per piece.
- 4 poems max per author.
 - Discretion goes to the editor to reject or approve what will be accepted into Voices.
- Submission does not guarantee acceptance
- The editor is not expected to edit pieces which are not accepted into Voices.
- Editor had final say.
